

A jewellery collection by Kyo Hashimoto

Possessing a resemblance to lace, but presented in colorful acrylic and fine silver, the I Blame the Uni collection appears to bear the scars of a recent encounter with the spiky "Uni", the Japanese sea urchin (pronounced "ooo nee"). This spiky black sea creature is prized in Japanese cuisine, and for Kyo, a metaphor for her new found inspiration from things Japanese. After 17 years of living in Australia, Kyo has been living in Tokyo and this range references both the underground fashion scene and the kawaii aesthetic found in the city.

2006 - 2007

Dolly Pendant
(black)

Influences from sea urchin, lace and cloud formation.
Also available in retro-red..

Acrylic and fine silver
70 x 70 x 6 mm
900mm chain

Dolly Pendants
(black and retro-red)

Uni Earrings
(in white)

Lace and uni inspired earrings,
with fine silver sleepers.
Also available in black and cream.

Acrylic and fine silver
30 x 30 x 3 mm

Uni Earrings
(in black, white and cream)

Pleasantville
(village in black and white)

The Pleasantville pendants depict the "perfect world", the world without worries or stress.

Hand dyed acrylic and sterling silver
65 x 35 x 5 mm
380mm sterling silver chain

Pleasantville
(town in white)

A peaceful skyline composed in soft pastel blue and pink hand dyed acrylic.

Dyed acrylic and sterling silver
105 x 60 x 5mm
340mm sterling silver chain

Pleasantville
(simple version)

A fun way to wear a peaceful panorama.

Dyed acrylic
105 x 60 x 5mm
340mm sterling silver chain

Cloud Pendant

An outline of a fluffy cloud to float around your chest.

Acrylic and sterling silver
65 x 40 x 3mm
30mm sterling silver chain

Also available in a brooch.

For more information please email

info@kyohashimoto.com

or visit

www.kyohashimoto.com